

Springer, Nancy. Ribbiting Tales.

This anthology of humorous tales pays homage to the slimy frog! Brian Jacques, Bruce Coville, and Jane Yolen contribute to these high-hopping anecdotes.

Turner, Megan Whalen. Instead of Three Wishes. A collection of seven fantastical stories about leprechauns, ghosts, and the supernatural.

Wilde, Oscar. Stories for Children. Six of Wilde's classic stories are presented in this beautifully illustrated book and include the lauded "The Happy Prince" and "The Selfish Giant."

Wynne-Jones, Diana. Stopping For a Spell. This collection of three distinctive stories is full of magic and wit will spell-bind fans of the inexplicable.

Wynne-Jones, Tim. Lord of the Fries and Other Stories. A collection of Canadian stories where children interact with zany townsfolk and wacky family members!

Yee, Paul. Tales from Gold Mountain. This group of eight stories explores how Chinese immigrants built a unique place for themselves in North America.

Yolen, Jane. Here There be Unicorns. Yolen's tales of unicorn lore and enchanting fantasy will captivate both young and older readers.

SHORT STORY

COLLECTIONS

Anaya, Rudolfo. My Land Sings: Stories from the Rio Grande. A collection of ten stories set in New Mexico, as influenced by Hispanic and Native American folklore.

Asimov, Isaac et al. Young Star Travelers. Stories in which various authors imagine what life might be like for the children of tomorrow.

Bruchac, Joseph. Dog People: Native Dog Stories. Tales set 10,000 years ago, looking at the unique relationship between the Abenaki people and their faithful dogs.

Coville, Bruce. Oddly Enough. An exciting collection of short stories featuring angels, unicorns, vampires, werewolves, and other unusual creatures.

Crebbin, June. Horse Tales. Horse enthusiasts will love this beautifully illustrated collection of 14 stories from around the world and throughout time.

Henry, O. The Gift of the Magi and Other Stories. Included in this outstanding collection of O. Henry's classic short stories is his famous "The Gift of the Magi." With lush new illustrations.

Hurwitz, Johanna. Birthday Surprises. Ten authors answer how they would feel if one of their wrapped birthday presents turned out to be ... empty!

Kipling, Rudyard. Just So Stories. This set of tales from around the world attempts to explain why animals are the way they are. Interpreted by some of today's best illustrators!

Lewis, Naomi. Rocking Horse Land and other Classic Tales of Dolls and Toys. These enchanting tales of dolls and toys coming to life are scattered with charming illustrations which spark the imagination.

Marshall, James. Rats on the Range and Other Stories. This rip-roaring collection of hilarious short stories explores everything from a family of rats on vacation to a pig that needs to learn table manners!

McKissack, Patricia C. Porch Lies: Talks of Slicksters, Tricksters, and Other Wily Characters. A collection of yarns the author heard on her grandparents' porch which celebrates the oral history of African-Americans.

Moser, Barry. Great Ghost Stories. A spine-chilling collection of 13 stories taken from some of the best storytellers of the last century, including Bram Stoker and Madeleine L'Engle.

Paulsen, Gary. My Life in Dog Years. Each chapter of this heartwarming collection introduces one of the dogs who have shared Gary Paulsen's life.

Rosen, Michael. The Heart is Big Enough. Stories about children on the brink of adolescence. These challenges will resonate with a wide spectrum of young people.

San Souci, Robert. Double-Dare to Be Scared. This frightening collection of tales will make you want to keep your light on!

Sandburg, Carl. Rootabaga Stories. Sandburg's uniquely American voice rings throughout these 25 stories, including the classic "The White Horse Girl and the Blue Wind Boy."

Soto, Gary. Baseball in April and Other Stories. Based on Soto's life growing up in California, these stories feature themes of love and loss in the lives of Latino students.